

Act One

EXT. AN ALLEYWAY ON EARTH IS CONGESTED WITH A CRASHED SPACESHIP. THE CREW JUMPS OUT OF THE VARIOUS HATCHES AND DOORS AND BEGIN OPENING FIRE ON MAVERICK KI WHO IS ON TOP OF A LARGE BUILDING ACROSS THE STREET.

BOUNTY HUNTER WITH MOHAWK
Get Him! Nobody Shoots Down Our Ship And Gets Away With It!

A crew member launches off the ground with a jet back and flies straight towards Mav on the building. Mav jumps off of the building, grabs onto the flying fighter by the neck, and points him back down towards the ground. As they are flying back he throws the jet backed fighter into the ship, causing it to completely explode, and engages in a fist fight with 5 other fighters.

BOUNTY HUNTER #2
You can't escape Maverick Ki. It's over.

Maverick pushes a few buttons on his wrist pad. A drone flies overhead from behind the building Maverick jumped off of. It starts rapid firing at the bounty hunters with a massive parade of lasers. They duck for cover. 3 of them get shot right away. Mav pulls out his rifle and scopes out the remaining two. He headshots both as they peak to shoot down the drone. He wipes the dust off of his armored suit while grabbing a small device from his side pocket. He lifts it up to his mouth.

MAVERICK KI
All the targets are dead. I see that you have transferred the money to my account. Good doing business with you.

He puts the device back into his pocket and looks behind him at the mess. A small pink glob of goo monster is stuck underneath some of the ship's rubble. Maverick walks over and picks up the pieces so that the monster can slide away.

MAVERICK KI
You should watch where you're going little guy. These streets are never safe for little people like you.

Behind both of them one of the bounty hunters lifts up his head and slowly lifts his gun.

He fully charges it and shoots both a hole through Mav's left thigh and the little pink monster. Mav turns around and shoots him through the head and then falls to the ground. The pink monster slowly melts into the ground as it dies. Mav's leg begins to regenerate, and as it slowly patches up he walks out of the alleyway. People are staring at him and at his leg as it is slowly growing back in front of their eyes.

MAVERICK KI

Don't worry about the leg. It's been worse.

A little kid in the crowd starts crying.

MAVERICK KI

Anyone know who's pink goo ball that was?

An older lady pushes through the crowd. Tears are slowly falling down her face. Mav points over to the dead goo ball.

MAVERICK (CONT.)

I tried to save it.

Maverick puts his hand on her shoulder.

MAVERICK (CONT.)

You can probably buy a new one at the pet store a couple blocks down. They got all the different colors... I'm sorry about that.

The old lady hugs Maverick and starts crying into his chest. He awkwardly stands there and slowly pats her on the back.

MAVERICK (CONT.)

Don't lean to much my leg is still healing.

EXT. BUSY EARTH CITY STREET. DAY.

Mav is hobbling on the sidewalk. A little kid approaches from ahead and sticks his hand through the hole in Mav's leg. He looks up at Mav and laughs.

LITTLE KID

That's awesome! Wow!

LITTLE KID'S MOM
Ronny! Leave that man alone. So sorry sir.

Maverick watches as the kid holds his mothers hand and walks away.

INT. MAVERICK'S SECRET HIDEOUT. NIGHT.

Maverick is asleep in his bunker. The room has a small cot. A locker with guns is across from the bed. The armor is on a charging stand next to the locker. It is in sentry mode ready to shoot possible intruders. Maverick is turning and tossing as flashbacks of his past are occurring in his nightmare.

EXT. MARTIAN STREETS.

Ash is falling from the sky. Buildings are falling down and Martians are running frantically for cover. Maverick Ki is holding onto his father's hand while he leads him and his mother through the crowded street of bodies and rubble. Alien ships are flying through the skies as the Martian army fights off Martian rebels.

MAVERICK'S DAD
Keep up Mav! We gotta go now!

The three of them rush off of the destroyed road as fast as they can and scurry into a side alleyway.

MAVERICK'S MOM
Babe, we didn't park the ship over here. It's still down a couple blocks. I don't know if we will make it.

Two Martian soldiers turn the corner and open fire on Maverick's parents. Maverick's dad pulls out a blaster and starts shooting back. Maverick crouches down to the ground and closes his eyes and plugs his ears with his hands. His mother covers him with her body.
